JURORS' STATEMENT

I look for a unified and accomplished body of skills, technique, subject matter and/or style. Work should have some original "content", a message for the viewer, a story to tell or an emotion to evoke.

1st Place

Sue Prideaux, "Don't Forget Me"

A nice up front composition, great color and handling of the medium.

2nd Place

Mickey Anne Rice, "Tale of the Tail"

A creative use of the medium, wonderful presentation and an interesting story.

3rd Place

Phyllis Adams, "Misty Morning"

An atmospheric rendering of a common sight. Simple and direct composition.

Good handling of the medium.

Honorable Mention

Heide Hallemeier, "The Visitor"

Handling of the watercolor paint is quite good. Color, composition and the "look" of the subject is pleasing.

Honorable Mention

Paul Vien, "Chickadee and Rhododendren"

A very unified use of color, composition and the medium.

Honorable Mention

Sharon Andrade, "Under the Moon"

Expressive use of the medium. A great story.
