

JUNE CRAFT CLASSES

POTTERY

Class meets for three 3-hour sessions on Wednesdays,
May 28, June 4 & 18 from 6–9 P. M.

Instructor: Wayne Fuerst

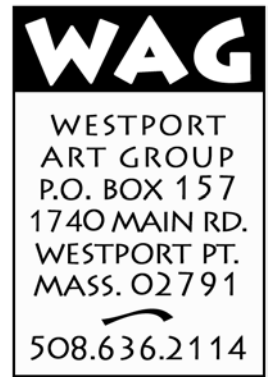

Slump, slab and coil building as well as finishing techniques, bisque firing & glazing. There will be a demo of wheel throwing and loading a kiln. Tools will be provided. There will be a $25.00 materials fee payable to instructor at first session that covers a 1/4 carton of clay, firing & glazing slips.

Class Fee:

WAG Members: $55.00; Non-members: $70.00

Materials Fee of $25.00 payable to instructor

Deadline for registration is May 12.

TEACHER BIOS

Wayne Fuerst, a new WAG member, has been a potter for about 30 years. He is known for his distinctive surface decorations and use of glazes. He currently teaches at Harvard University Ceramics Studio & Mudflat Studio, Somerville. His works have been published in the book 600 Pitchers by Lark Books.

Non-members may elect to join WAG and avoid the extra fee.
REGISTER PROMPTLY TO ASSURE A PLACE. CLASS SIZES ARE LIMITED!
Full refund made promptly if class is cancelled.

Send the form below with your check for class fees only, payable to WAG, to:
B.A. Chadwick, Registrar, P.O. Box 393, Westport Point, MA 02791

DETACH AND ENCLOSE

Class Name _____ Fee _____ Member Non-member

Name _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip Code _____

Phone _____

Sorry, missed classes cannot be refunded or made up. Refund only for cancellations 14 days prior to first session.